

Sibo Makes A Difference by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-920293-80-2

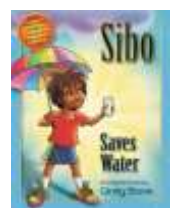

Sibo is an energetic young girl who has always cared for planet but didn't realise just how bad it really was... until she met the Earthman. After hearing what he had to say, she embarks on various energy saving projects and realises that even little changes will make a BIG difference.

Sibo and the Veggie Bed by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-920116-68-2

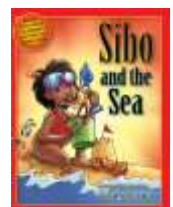

Sibo's adventures continue and this time in her own garden. Reading the paper one day she learns how to plant her own vegetables. With her father's help, she sets about making a veggie bed and eventually supplying the household with delicious and nutritious vegetables.

Sibo Saves Water by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-920116-69-9

Sibo starts thinking about water and where it comes from. She realises what a precious resource it is and finds out how water gets into our homes. Her concern leads her to discover ways to conserve water around the house.

Sibo and the Sea by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-920116-76-7

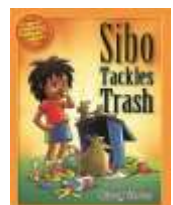

Sibo is so excited. She has worked hard at school and now its holiday time. Sibos travels with her Mum and Dad to the seaside and finds that things are not what they should be. Her disappointment turns to pleasure when her father suggests solutions and spoils her with a special trip.

Sibo in Space by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-920116-75-0

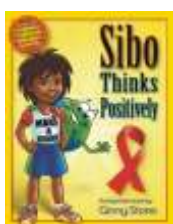

Looking at the stars one night with her Dad, Sibos becomes fascinated with the planets and outer space. She sets out to find as much as she can and not only finds amazing facts, she also discovers just how fragile our planet really is.

Sibo Tackles Trash by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-920116-89-7

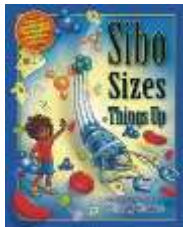

One day an absent-minded Sibos drops her sweet wrapper on the floor in her classroom. As punishment, her teacher tells her to remain behind at break time. Sibos's teacher exposes the problems of littering but also tells Sibos about recycling and how she can help keep our cities and countryside free of this messy stuff.

Sibo Thinks Positively by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-920340-06-3

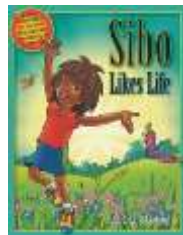

Sibo makes friends with a new girl who has a secret that she seems ashamed of. Sibos's mother also makes it clear that the friendship is not on. Find out what the secret is and how Sibos helps change her mother's misguided beliefs and shows her new friend that her secret is nothing to be ashamed of.

Sibbo Sizes Things Up by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-920340-40-7

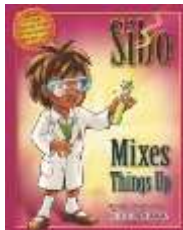

Whilst doing a school project, Sibbo thinks she has found just what she needs in her mum's washing detergent, but all she found was trouble. Her headmistress arranges a talk from Professor Small who explains that what she was looking for is smaller than she can see. He is an expert in Nanotechnology and takes Sibbo and her friends on a fantastic adventure of the mind.

Sibbo Likes Life by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-77570-037-1

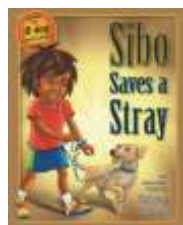

At school, Sibbo and her friends learn a new word - biodiversity. The teacher's explanation makes Sibbo concerned about the environment, but her dad comes up with a great idea to fix up the local park. The whole community gets involved and shares ideas on how it can be done. They are rewarded with a clean and beautiful space to play, have picnics, go for walks and marvel at nature's beauty.

Sibbo Mixes Things Up by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-920340-41-4

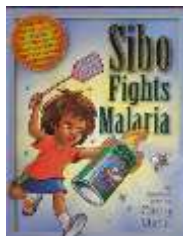

Oh dear... Sibbo has made a huge mess and has to clean it up before her Mum finds out. Thankfully her friend Lennie comes to the rescue and helps clean up the mess with a chemical "magic potion". A grateful Sibbo becomes curious about chemicals and how they work, so her teacher invites a guest to school to tell her class all about chemistry and how it helps us in everyday life.

Sibbo Saves a Stray by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-77570-116-3

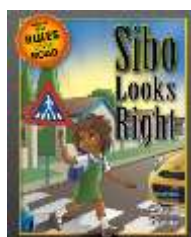

Sibbo is befriended by a stray dog and wants to keep it. But her mum is having none of it and the dog is taken to the pound. The man from the shelter explains the plight of animals to Sibbo and how certain people mistreat them and don't seem to care. A determined Sibbo does some research and gets involved in her usual way. Will she be reunited with her new friend?

Sibbo Fights Malaria by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-77570-167-5

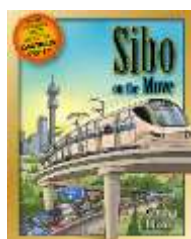

Sibbo and her family are going on another holiday, but she wonders why she has to take pills before she goes there. She soon finds out that it is a malaria hot-spot and that certain mosquitoes are to blame for spreading the disease. She learns all about malaria – the severe symptoms, what causes it and how to prevent it.

Sibbo Looks Right by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-77570-229-0

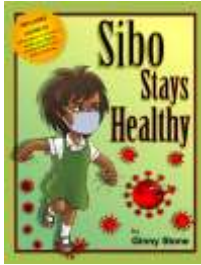

Sibbo and her parents are leaving the shopping mall one night, when they nearly have an accident – and it wasn't even their fault! This gets Sibbo thinking about road safety, so she asks her teacher to organise a talk at the school to highlight the do's and don'ts. Then, one day after school, Sibbo gets a surprise visit and receives an amazing gift– something she's always wanted.

Sibbo on the Move by Ginny Stone

ISBN 978-1-77570-230-6

One day at school, Miss Ball announces that she is planning a class-trip to the zoo. But that wasn't the only exciting thing – they were going there on the Gautrain! Miss Ball explained the rules about travelling on the Gautrain, particularly the importance of manners, as well as all the amazing high-tech features – Sibbo couldn't wait! Then, after raising funds for the trip with a bake sale, the class embarks on their epic adventure on the super-cool Gautrain.

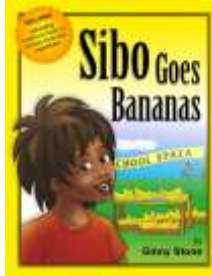

Sibo Stays Healthy by Ginny Stone

ISBN: 978-1-77570-272-6

Sibo learns in class that washing your hands properly, and not touching your face, is very important if you want to stay healthy when there are nasty viruses about.

Keeping the correct distance from strangers, sneezing into a tissue or a flexed elbow also goes a long way to keeping yourself and others safe.

Sibo Goes Bananas by Ginny Stone

ISBN: 978-1-77570-269-6

Sibo is most excited to discover that there's a School Spaza at Flatwater Still on the weekend that she and her family will be visiting. She's never been to such an event before and can't wait to see all the goodies that will be on offer. Apart from lots of deliciously healthy fruit, Sibbo also discovers interesting uses for parts of fruit that normally get thrown away.